

1 Tent City of the Yodatal 4

4

Only a Yodatal player can bring the Tent City into play. You cannot control more than one Tent City.
Day: Bow the Tent City and pay 4 Copper. Put a 2S Yodatal Follower token on one of your unbowed Yodatal Heroes.

They arrived from the north and pitched camp just outside the city walls. No one knows how they survived across miles of desert, and many fear they are not as benign as they seem.

© Illus. © 1999 Rob Alexander

3 The Eleventh Tribe 5

7

Water tokens attached to The Eleventh Tribe can each absorb 1 additional point of damage for each Fortification attached to The Eleventh Tribe.

"Many hundreds of years ago, the silent prophet helped us escape the cruel and unaccepting yoke of the Yodatal Empire, guiding us back here to the Great Desert. When the Senpet attacked, we broke into fourteen tribes, only one of which went with the small wise man. Today we are free from our second masters and set out to find our lost brethren."

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Kewer

1 The Halls of Reflection 9

5

Bow one of your Holdings for each Water you move from the Halls, or use from the Halls to pay for a card.

Adira walked the halls of the royal palace, scanning the beautiful works of art, masonry, and glassware. She wondered if anyone would remember the remarkable events that had happened this day. - "The End of Age," Part One.

© Illus. © 1999 Christina Wald

1 The Last Stop 4

3

No player can control more than one Last Stop. Draw one less card during your End Phase.

"It is the oldest part of the city, where villains and thieves, miscreants and murderers all gather. It is the worst of all of us, thrust together without care or compassion. It is our greatest mistake and our worst shame." - Yusef al Kedar al Rassuli on The Last Stop, just before ordering the city guard to erect a high wall around it.

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wickstrom

1 The Sewers 5

4

All Heroes without the Undead Trait have -1S/-1K while at a battle in the Sewers.

Kara asked about the terrible figures lurking in the sewers above. The Ashalan answered, "They are ghuls, harvested from humankind's worst atrocity. But they have their uses."

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

1 The Thoroughfare 5

6

Before the Battle Action Segment of a battle at The Thoroughfare, destroy a random card from each army, along with any attached cards and tokens.

Adnan and the Believer barreled down the thoroughfare, trying to evade the monstrous Ruhmal goddess. The robber was beginning to regret ever having walked into that stable. - "Puja's Tale," Part Three.

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

1 Thieves Quarter 4

3

You cannot control more than two Thieves Quarters. You cannot redistribute Water to or from the Thieves Quarter during the End Phase.

"You cling to your possessions when you should cling to your freedom." - Ra'Shari saying

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Garrick

Dark Journey Home

0 Story Points

Tale Reaction: Play this card immediately before you lose your last City Section.

Reward Open: You remain in the game until the end of the turn. If any other players are also eliminated from the game at the end of the turn, the Blessed player is eliminated first.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Jeff Rein

The Tale of the Fourth Avatar

1 Story Point

Tale Reaction: Play this card when every other player has zero cards in his or her hand and this is the last card in your hand.

Day: Pay 2 Copper and bow this Story. Get any card from your deck and add it to your hand. Reshuffle the deck.

Shosuro Toge looked up into the light of the Fallen Star and wept for the rebirth of her lost ancestor.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Dandke

City Gates

Fortification
Battle: Bow and destroy the City Gates. This battle ends. All units return home unbowed.

0 3

2

Copper Mine

Bow the Copper Mine to produce 2 Copper.
Day: Bow and destroy the Copper Mine. Reduce a Hero's Strength by 2 until the end of the turn.
The Scorpion fell in with the fleeing Hanif, happy to be free of the mines, and while the Senpet hunted the others, they vanished out into the sands.

1 2

1

Den of Iniquity

Bow the Den of Iniquity to produce 2 Copper, plus 1 Copper for each Spices you have in play.
Open: Bow and destroy the Den of Iniquity. Bow a Hero with 0 Influence.
"Abdul-Rafi's place is the best place in the city. Of course, once I went to Abdul-Rafi's, I couldn't remember much else." -unknown patron

0 3

2

Festival Grounds

Bow the Festival Grounds to produce 2 Copper.
Bow the Festival Grounds to produce 3 Copper if an Omen is in play.
Open: Bow and destroy the Festival Grounds. Destroy an Omen in play.
"When the festivals arrive, even bitter enemies mingle together." -Jasmin

0 4

2

Gold Merchant

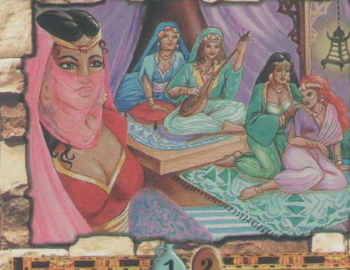

Bow the Gold Merchant to produce 3 Copper.
Bow the Gold Merchant to produce 4 Copper when bringing an Experienced Hero into play.
*"Shala will tell you that my gold will tarnish. But what she will forget to tell you is that her silver is fake."
 -Qanajah*

1 3

1

Harem

Bow the Harem to produce 2 Copper.
Day: If you are an Assassin player, bow and destroy any number of your Holdings. Draw the same number of cards from your deck.
Every woman in the harems of the Silver Tongue is said to be trained as a diplomat—and to kill.

1 2

3

Ivory Market

Bow the Ivory Market to produce 1 Copper.
Day: Bow and destroy the Ivory Market. Every Copper-producing Holding in play produces 1 additional Copper until the end of the game.
Mere hours after the attack, Ivory Kingdoms merchants had already begun selling their wares at the eastern edge of the city. With the City Guard in a weakened state, nothing could be done about them... for now.

0 3

2

Jackals' Hall of Souls

Bow the Jackals' Hall of Souls to produce 2 Copper.
Open: If you are a Jackal player, bow and destroy the Hall of Souls. All Heroes in play have -1K until the end of the turn.
Before slipping out of history, the Ra'Shari and the Ashalan swept through the Hall with violence shaped by contempt for the Jackals' vile practices. Though many soul-stealers escaped, still more have joined their victims.

1 2

2

Jandaq Slave Caverns

Bow the Jandaq Slave Caverns to produce 2 Copper.
At the beginning of each Night Phase, draw and discard a card. If the card's Fate value exceeds that of the Slave Caverns, destroy the Slave Caverns and one other randomly chosen Holding you control.
"The Hidden Shame" they called it in the age that followed, the greatest atrocity the Senpet ever committed.

2 0

2

1 Hojyn 3

1 4 2

Ashalan Companion to Yesugai • Explorer
Battle: Once per turn, pay 1 Water. Destroy an Omen.
"He followed his heart over following his people. Nobility of that caliber is rare and should be rewarded." –The Goddess

1

© Illus. © 1999, Chris Dornhaus

2 Lamassar 4

2 6 1

Ashalan Heart-Seeker • Archery +1
Battle: If the City Section at a battle Lamassar is in has any Water, Lamassar cannot be sent home from the battle by another player's action.
He has collected three hearts in their ivory boxes, and there are three Khadi who cannot raise their hands against him.

3

© Illus. © 1999, Ben Peck

2 Laqsha 3

2 7 2

Ashalan Desert Guide • Hunter of the Qanon
Day: Bow Laqsha and permanently decrease her Ka by 1. Target a player. The player can only spend Water from one of his or her City Sections (of his or her choice) for the rest of the turn.
Her loyalties are not with her people, but out in the sands. She knows much about the wastes' lost ruins and oases, and though not very friendly, she asks only for water in return for her services.

2

© Illus. © 1999, Frank Gentwied

1 Maymun 4

1 7 2

Ashalan Sandsmith • Sahir • Unique
Day: Bow Maymun. Play a Night action, paying all costs.
"There is power in the sand left over from Lady Sun's wrath. I swear, my lady, I will find it."

4

© Illus. © 1999, Eric Anderson

1 Mendi-Duad 2

1 5 3

Ashalan Priest • Vindictive Spirit • Sahir
Ghiyath did not like his new home deep in the sewers of the city. The light was poor, and the shadows jumped at every flicker of his candle. He had almost grown used to it when one of them leapt out at him.

1

© Illus. © 1999, Thomas Gianni

2 Mirali 1

1 5 2

Ashalan Guard • Raid +1
Reaction: When you commit Mirali to defend against a Raider with less Strength than Mirali, bow Mirali to send the Raider home bowed.
"The lake is yours, Caliph. Use it well."

2

© Illus. © 1999, Craig Mohr

3 Samarhad 4

0 8 1

Ashalan Sun-Rider
Reaction: Once per turn, immediately before you commit Samarhad to a battle, you can play one action on him.
He bought his horse from the Moto—two hundred years ago.

2

© Illus. © 1999, Ben Peck

3 Sylmun 2

2 8 2

Ashalan Birth-Father of Onaja • Renegade
Battle: Once per battle, discard 1 Water. Send a Hero without attached Followers home from this battle, unbowed.
*"Please, I can pay! My wife and I must leave the city at once! We cannot be here when the... when the sun sets!"
 —"They Collect Their Due," Part Two*

2

© Illus. © 1999, Chris Dornhaus

0 Tarya 1

1 4 0

Ashalan Half-Breed
Reaction: When bringing a Hero into play, bow Tarya. Reduce the Hero's Water cost by 1.
Her mother was the Council Leader of the Ashalan, and her father was a stranger from an unknown land.

1

© Illus. © 1999, Kaithe & Vick

1 Alhena 3

1 3 2

Assassin Apprentice • Elusive Seductress
 Alhena will not challenge a Hero with more Influence.
With Chandra's guidance and Fatima's support, Alhena should have been destined for greatness within the family, but her interests lay in less savory arenas.

1

© Illus. c. 1999 Theodore Black

3 Amber 3

2 7 2

Rogue Assassin Confidant
Reaction: When one of your Heroes wins a duel, gain 1 Water on one of your City Sections.
"I have known her since before we were given our Kris. There is no one I trust more." – Adira

3

© Illus. c. 1999 Jason Brande

1 Chandra 2

0 5 2

Assassin Bearer of the Black Star
Reaction: Once per turn, when one of your Heroes wins a duel, draw a card.
"When all you have is a hammer, everything starts to look like a nail." –from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. c. 1999 Ramon Perez

2 Fatima 2

1 5 4

Assassin First-Born
 Fatima can remain bowed.
Day: Bow Fatima. Target a Hero with less than 4 Ka. The Hero cannot be assigned to any attacks as long as Fatima remains bowed.
The soul-jars were searched again and again, but hers was never found. –"Fatima's Tale," Part Six

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Eric Anderson

2 Haja the Twice-Born 2

1 7 2

Cursed Assassin Master
Reaction: Bow Haja immediately after another of your Heroes enters a duel, but before the first thrust is played. Without looking at it, thrust from your deck. The opposing Hero must parry this thrust as usual. The duel then begins normally.

3

© Illus. c. 1999 Pam Peck

3 Haroun 5

1 11 3

Assassin • Houses of Dahab • Qolat • Experienced • Unique
Reaction: When Haroun wins a duel, bow him. Target one of his opponent's Holdings. You gain control of the Holding until Haroun is destroyed.
He considered his final act in this tragedy, and what his masters would do to him if his secret were discovered.

3

© Illus. c. 1999 Kevin Daily

2 Jamilah 2

1 6 2

Assassin Silken Ghost • Betrayed Vigilante
 A Hero opposing Jamilah in a duel cannot thrust with a card whose Fate value equals Jamilah's Influence.
A fortune for the family of every person: he's killed: that is what I will demand from the Tongue before I take his life. –"Jamilah's Tale," Part Four

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Thomas Gianni

2 Marishka 3

1 6 3

Assassin Midwife • Kaleel's Legion
Day: Bow Marishka. Randomly select and look at one card from another player's hand. If the card is a Hero, you may pay Copper equal to the card's Focus value to force the discard of the card.
Somewhere, she whispered softly into the tiny Ashalan's ear, gently lulling it to sleep.

3

© Illus. c. 1999 Ramon Perez

3 Sabina 4

1 7 4

Assassin Lady of the Seven Oaths
 Sabina will only attach Assassin Followers.
 Sabina will not challenge another Assassin.
Her first love betrayed her to the Senpet. Although her body has healed from the wounds, her soul never will.

1

© Illus. c. 1999 Audrey Cornum

4 Wagi al Musakin 2

1 6 1

Houses of Dahab Deformed Enforcer
At the beginning of the Dawn Phase, either bury Wagi or give another player 1 Water to attach to a City Section of the player's choice (if possible).
"What do you want, freak?" the trader scowled.
"The Tongue wants his dinari, thief, or shall I collect it in flesh?"

1

© Illus. © 1999 Tim Giermar

2 Ashalla 5

1 7 2

Ebonite Sorceress • Sahir
Spirit Day: Bow the Ashalla and discard a Jinn card from your hand. One of your Heroes gains +2S/+2K until the end of the turn.
"In everyone there is a monster. Draw it out, and it can be expunged."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Frank Gembick Jr.

3 Jubal the Knife 3

1 8 1

Ebonite Recruiter
Reaction: Immediately before engaging, Jubal gains +2S. Put a -1K token on Jubal after the battle.
"His ferocity will make an excellent addition to our growing forces, but his temper will ensure that he is never judged by the Stone."

2

© Illus. © 1999 David Monette

3 Kabdar Fassal 5

2 8 3

Ebonite Principal of Valor • Templar
Kabdar gains Raid +2 while defending against a raid.
"The swell of pride within Fassal's chest was incredible as judgment spoke. 'For your efforts at the line and all of your patient years with the men at Sentinel Point, we appoint you the Principal of...'"

2

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

2 Manala Shessim 1

0 6 2

Ebonite Guardian of the Seven Keys
Reaction: When Fate cards are revealed in a raid in which Manala is the defender, bow Manala. Reduce the Fate value of one of the cards by Manala's Ka.
Throughout the siege, the doors to the Nine Rooms of Golden Wonder were never compromised.

2

© Illus. © 1999 KC Lancaster

2 Pashal 2

0 5 0

Ebonite Squire
Pashal will not refuse a duel.
Battle: Bow Pashal. Bow an opposing Follower of the opposing army's choice.
"What is this? It is the Awakening. It is the future." -Judgment

1

© Illus. © 1999 Susan Van Camp

1 Rabah al Gazi 1

1 3 2

Ebonite Nervous Runaway • Proselyte
Rabah absorbs 3 additional points of damage when destroyed by an engagement.
"The boy will not speak of his life before joining the Order of the Ebonites, and the Council has chosen not to allow him the Test of the Stone until he does. 'His fears are his impurity,' they say, 'and we would only lose him, this early.'"

1

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Alexander Behr

2 The Twins Janan 3

1 7 2

Ebonite Warrior • Avatar of the Goddess
Day: Bow the Twins. Draw two cards. Show one of the cards to the other players and put it in your hand. Bury the other card.
"Beg us both for mercy, and see which one gives it."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Miller

1 Truth 4

1 6 1

Ebonite Idiot-Savant • Principal • Sahir
Day: Bow Truth. Target a player who has not declared an attack this turn. The player must either declare an attack against you before the end of the Day Phase or discard 1 Water.
"The victim of a miscast spell, this blind man is without temperament, devoid of emotion—the perfect candidate for the Principal of Truth."

2

© Illus. © 1999 April Lee

3 The Ma'ghul 3

2 8 0

Jackal Ally • Ambassador from Jigoku • Flying
 Archery engagements cannot target The Ma'ghul.
 Reaction: Immediately before the Dawn Phase, discard 1 Water. The Ma'ghul copies an ability of a Hero in play until the end of the turn. Ma'ghul cannot copy the same ability more than once per game.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Carl Frank

1 Yaminah 1

1 5 2

Jackal Provocateur
 Battle: Bow Yaminah. Move one of your unbowed Heroes from another battle to this battle.
She would just as soon capture a man's heart as his soul. She is the worst kind of villain: beautiful, exotic, and completely aware of her charms.

2

© Illus. © 1999 April Lee

2 Argoun 3

0 6 1

Moto Clan Youth
 If Argoun is assigned to raid a City Section, the Hero defending the City Section must play his or her Fate card face-up before Argoun plays his.
The maps he sells tell the caravans how to avoid the desert's dangers—except its predators.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Ben Peck

1 Jangir 4

1 6 1

Moto Clan Cosmic Visionary • Shugenja • Sahir
 Reaction: Bow Jangir when Fate values are revealed in a raid. Switch any two of your raiding Fate values.
"The secret truth is that the elements are only by-products of something much larger. I must remain here to study this further."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Monika Livingstone

3 Kara 4

3 10 2

Moto • Ashalan • Avatar of the Goddess • Experienced
 Unique • Carry +2 • Raid +1
 Open: Bow Kara to challenge a Unique Hero to an unrefusable duel.
"Husband, I have learned the terrible price of immortal wisdom and felt the hands of the stars themselves guide my sword. How can I return to the desert now?" —"Kara's Tale," Part Seven

4

© Illus. © 1999 Mike Raabe

0 Khaidu 1

1 4 3

Moto Clan Khan
 If Khaidu dies, destroy one of your Holdings.
 Day: Bow Khaidu and pay 1 Water. Straighten a Holding.
At every sunrise he remembers the names of the fallen: Gaheri, Kara, Kiyoshi....

3

© Illus. © 1999 Mark Tein

3 Kiyoshi 3

2 7 0

Former Moto Clan Tar-khan • Carry +1
"He has followed his ancestors into history. We can only hope that he will find peace in his new role beyond the clan." —Khaidu

3

© Illus. © 1999 L.A. Williams

3 Malakai 1

1 3 1

Moto Askaree • Royal Informant
 Malakai cannot be assigned to attack or to raid.
In his position as a Caliphate guard, he has heard many cruel words and seen many violent deaths. He is always willing to part with them for just a few dinari.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Randy Asplund-Fahst

1 Sha-gir 3

1 5 1

Moto Clan Master Horseman • Spy
 Night: Sha-gir goes on a raid. No Heroes can join him. This does not replace your normal chance to raid, and Sha-gir can go on this raid even if you have already raided this turn.
Under cover of darkness, Sha-gir rode from post to post collecting every detail about the troops around Medina at al Salaam. Kiyoshi would be pleased at the results.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Antonio Grubisic

2 Balak the Hanif 4

1 8 2

Balak gains +1S for each opposing unit during battle.

Imprisoned, branded, beaten, and forgotten, Rawif has little love for the Jewel of the Desert, the Senpet who imprisoned him there, or any within its walls. He will follow the Eleventh Tribe on their quest, regardless of the wishes of his brother, Soraph.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Scott Sison

1 Galerius 4

1 7 3

Yodatai Inquisitor • Sahir • Unique
Galerius cannot summon jinn.

Reaction: Immediately after a Sahir bows to cast a Spell, but before the Spell resolves, bow Galerius. Galerius challenges the Sahir to an unrefusable duel.

His birth name was Phresex, but that was the first of many changes the Yodatai made.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Theodore Black

0 Galon Triblius 3

1 4 0

Yodatai Amateur Inventor • Scout • Archery +3

He helped to build the hand-bow himself, though he is far more accurate with it than it is reliable.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Miller

3 Katarine of the Sheel 2

2 9 3

Yodatai Centurion Lieutenant • Berserk • Unique

Reaction: When Katarine's army destroys another player's City Section, target a Holding controlled by the player with a Fate value lower than Katarine's. You gain control of the Holding until the end of the game.

"Are you confident that this is the best tactic, my lord? Meeting the raiders with an army?"

3

© Illus. © 1999 Eric Olson

1 Octavius 1

1 5 1

Yodatai Spectral Martyr • Berserk

Reaction: Immediately before Octavius engages, he gains +3S. Destroy him after the engagement's resolution.

He was the first to set foot on this continent, and he led the Yodatai into victory against countless empires. Sometimes, when the conquest is worthy, he can be seen fighting alongside his descendants as well.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Theodore Black

2 Phyrus 1

1 6 1

Yodatai Centurion • Siege-Master • Berserk

Reaction: When Phyrus is committed to attack, target a Fortification at the City Section he is attacking. All of the Fortification's abilities, effects, and bonuses are negated until the end of the battle.

"The first step toward conquest is a foothold. These raiders called Moto have provided us with an unexpected opportunity that we cannot neglect."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Grimm

3 Valeria 4

1 9 2

Yodatai Daughter of Aurelian • Patrician • Berserk

Open: A Follower in Valeria's unit gains the Berserk trait until the end of the turn.

Her father has left a long trail of shattered lives—and broken bodies—behind them, a hundred victims of her fertile beauty.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Heather Britton

0 Vespa 2

1 5 3

Yodatai Bride of Phyrus • Patrician

Reaction: Bow Vespa when a Yodatai card is being brought into play. Reduce the card's Water cost by 1 or the Copper cost by 2.

"How is it possible for such a beautiful land to be so utterly barbaric?"

3

© Illus. © 1999 Tassimo Lake

3 Abd'al Zhayn 3

1 7 4

Unaligned Wanderer • Collector of Fables

I have traveled the world, and I have seen more than you could ever imagine. I have seen men with the heads of tigers, corpses wearing porcelain masks, and women whose arms were great rainbow-colored wings. The one thing I don't know is where I'll be tomorrow.

3

© Illus. © 1999 K. G. Higgins

0 al Zhayn's Trained Peacocks +0

0 2 1

This Hero gains an additional Carry +1.
"It's as if the thing could smell water a mile away." - al Hazaad

2

© Illus. © 1999 Susan Van Camp

1 Catapult Crew +0

0 2 1

Battle: Bow the Catapult Crew. Destroy an opposing Fortification.
Battle: Bow the Catapult Crew. Reduce the Base Strength of this City Section by 1.
Moto and Hanif controlled the catapults, and Yodai commanded them. Greek fire enveloped the guards, and then heavy loads were used against the walls. Well before dawn, the armies of Erba'a had pierced the outer defenses and swept into the heart of the city. - "The Shattered Jewel," Part Three

1

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Rantke

2 City Guard +0

0 3 1

The Ebonites and the City Guard braced for the siege as the horizon grew darker still. The Horde was a rolling mass of bodies, wagons, horses, camels, and engines of destruction the Yodai had brought with them from beyond the mountains. Each of the soldiers upon the city wall silently prayed for the Senpet to answer the Caliph's plea for help.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Susan Van Camp

0 Dahab Translator +1

0 5 +1

Reaction: Immediately after the Translator's Hero casts a non-jinn Spell, bow the Translator. Return the Spell to your hand.
The merchant kings hired him for his remarkable command of languages, but he has used the position to help bring together the scattered spirits of his Qanon brethren. Finally they are ready for the next stage in their evolution.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Val Meyer

1 Desert Warriors +0

0 5 1

Immediately after bringing Desert Warriors into play, gain Water equal to their Hero's Water cost on one of your City Sections
"Our armies would move much faster if we they were not carrying our gods, your majesty," Abresax said, trying to hide the anger in his words. Hensatti only smiled.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

* Doppelgangers +0

1 9 1

Rakshasa Shape-Change • Creature • Nonhuman
 The Doppelgangers' Strength equals their Hero's Strength.
"There are more of them!"

2

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Pavice

2 Elite Sentries +0

0 6 1

Reaction: Immediately before the Sentries' Hero engages, play a Battle or Open action from your hand.
The Caliph's threatening words still rang in Ghiyath's ear as he led the cadre of city guard out into the desert: "Find the Jinn of the Tempest and its Senpet master. Destroy them and return their ivory box to me."

3

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Proff Herbert

* Jinn Horde +0

0 3 1

Jinn
 Only a Sahir, Jinn, or Hero with more than 3 Ka can attach the Jinn Horde. Destroy one of your Sahir to bring Jinn Horde into play. The Jinn Horde's Strength equals the Ka of the destroyed Sahir.
"We wonder sometimes where all the jinn went after the goddess arrived." - Iakiyah
"Trust not the slumbering giant."
-from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

3

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Proff Herbert

2 Jinn Retainer +0

1 3 1

Only a Sahir can attach the Jinn Retainer.
Battle: Bow the Jinn Retainer. Decrease an opposing Hero's Strength by 1.
Battle: Bow and destroy the Jinn Retainer. Destroy an opposing Jinn.
It was the first jinn to kill another, and its masters live on the borrowed time of its age-old sentence.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Mark Tsan

2 Masters of the Blood-Red Tiger +1

0 6 1

You can attach the Masters of the Blood-Red Tiger to another player's Hero.
Any Hero can bow to challenge the Masters' Hero to an unrefusable duel.

"The truth is that we could be anyone you know, or love, or hate, and you would never know. How do you fight something you can't identify?" - The Qolai Master

3

© Illus. c. 1999 Phil Foglio

1 Merchant Caravan +0

0 2 1

A Dahab Hero can attach the Merchant Caravan for 1 less Copper.
Bow the Merchant Caravan to produce 1 Copper.
Bow the Merchant Caravan to produce 1 Influence.

In the end, it was clear: regardless of who her allies were or where her goods came from, the Jewel of the Desert would continue.

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Tim Boudaillou

1 Moto Steeds +0

0 3 1

This Hero gains an additional Raid +1.

"I once knew a Moto who, on a dark and windy night, brought his horse into his tent to keep it safe from the desert's unforgiving storm. I only hope the horse appreciated the fine rugs."
-Nekhebet

2

© Illus. c. 1999 L. A. Williams

3 Nessid +0

0 6 +1

"The Forgotten" • Janissary Squad • Archery
Only a Hero with more than 2 Influence can attach the Nessid.
The Nessid gain +1S while defending.
Reaction: Immediately before an opposing unit moves out of a battle the Nessid are in, bow the Nessid to engage the unit.

3

© Illus. c. 1999 William O'Connor

0 Ra'Shari Dancers +1

0 3 1

When you bring the Ra'Shari Dancers into play, draw a card.
Open: Discard a card from your hand.
The Ra'Shari Dancers gain +1S.

While the gypsy celebration continued, their leaders and the Ashalan followed Adnan back to the Jackal Lake of Souls. There was still one unfinished matter to complete before they departed.

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Heather Bratton

1 Ra'Shari Mystics +1

1 3 1

Reaction: When the Mystics engage, the player absorbing the damage must discard a card from his or her hand, if possible.

"Her eyes gleamed with a youthful beauty-at first." -al Hazaad

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Thomas Manning

0 Rogue Assassins +1

0 5 1

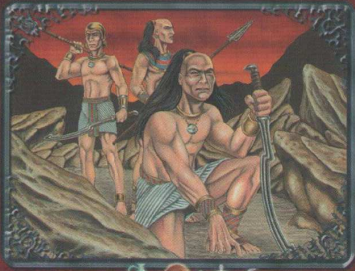

Reaction: Bow the Rogue Assassins immediately before their Hero is destroyed in a duel. They are destroyed instead.
The Hero goes home bowed.
Reaction: When an action targets the Rogue Assassins' Hero, bow and destroy the Rogue Assassins. The action is canceled.

"While the others bicker needlessly, we act as the Old Man would have wanted."

3

© Illus. c. 1999 KC Lancaster

2 Senpet Trackers +0

0 5 1

A Senpet Hero can attach the Senpet Trackers for 2 less Copper.
Reaction: When a Hero successfully raids one of your City Sections, bow the Senpet Trackers. Draw and discard a card.
If the card's Fate value exceeds the Hero's Fate value, all Water on the Hero is destroyed and the Hero cannot straighten next turn.

2

© Illus. c. 1999 Jimmy Pons

2 Spearmen +0

0 4 1

Archery -1
Spearmen gain +1S when defending.

The Hanif slaves proved quite valuable in the assault upon the city, and their relish for dispatching Senpet was unmatched.

1

© Illus. c. 1999 Scott Jones

2 The Askaree +0

2 4 1

Caliphate Guards
Battle: Once per battle, if you are the Blessed player, send one opposing unit home from the battle, bowed.
*"When stranded on an island in a sea of adversaries, place your most trusted friends upon the shore."
 —from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem*

3

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Manning

3 The Blood-Sworn +0

0 6 +1

Reaction: Bow the Blood-Sworn immediately before their Hero is destroyed. Attach the Blood-Sworn to another of your Heroes. If their Hero is destroyed in a battle, you can only attach the Blood-Sworn to another of your Heroes in the same battle.
*Their voices echoed to the heavens: "It is time."
 There would be an answer.*

3

© Illus. © 1999 Monika Livingston

3 The Cursed +0

1 10 1

Battle: Bow and destroy The Cursed. Destroy an opposing bowed Follower or an opposing bowed Hero.
One by one the male children of the Old Man slipped into the Senpet Garrison, heading for the chambers of the prisoner. Haroun would be pleased that his plan had gone so smoothly.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Mike Ranne

1 The Modari +0

0 2 1

Day: Bow The Modari. Move any amount of Water between your City Sections.
"After the fires burned out, I saw the gypsies leave. They walked with the pale, blue-skinned warriors from below, out into the desert night. But before they reached the horizon, they vanished, as if they were never there at all. Moments later, a seventh star joined the heavens."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Antonio Grassi

1 The Qadaam +0

0 0 2

Servants of the Blood-Red Tiger
*"Who... who are you?" the Moto Tar-Khan asked of the shrouded men.
 "Those who have found a new purpose, a noble purpose. Our Masters would like to offer you a position in their organization. They could use someone with your special talents."*

1

© Illus. © 1999 Tim Bombardillo

2 The Senpet Phalanx +0

0 6 1

The Senpet Phalanx gains +2S while attacking a non-Advanced City Section.
"We are betrayed on all fronts," the Pharaoh declared to the assembled masses. "The Caliph steals from us, then demands we protect her from those who have every right to depose her. No more! Go forth today and know that you fight with the blessing of ten thousand gods!"

2

© Illus. © 1999 Lassime Lake

2 Thugs +0

1 1 1

The Thugs' Hero has 0 Influence while the Thugs are attached.
 Pay 1 Copper at the end of each Dawn Phase, or destroy the Thugs.
They converged on him in the Maze, brandishing daggers and waving clenched fists. "Do not tempt me," the Monkey Man sneered. "I'll swallow your souls!"

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Carrick

2 Tiger Companions +0

1 5 1

Reaction: Bow Tiger Companions immediately before they are destroyed in battle. Engage the opposing army for damage equal to the Tiger Companions' Strength.
"Yes, yes. Difficult to train they are, but once you see them go at someone, you'll understand why we try!" —Giya

3

© Illus. © 1999 KC Lancaster

2 Yodabat Heavy Cavalry +0

1 5 1

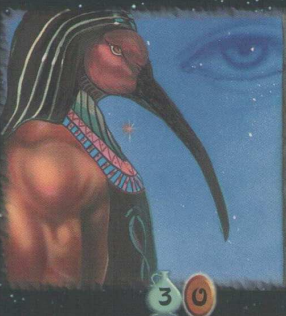

If Water absorbs damage engaged by this unit, gain 1 Water on one of your City Sections.
"Everything is a target: men, women, children. We shall not even spare the sand." —General Maris

3

© Illus. © 1999 Eric K. Olson

Toth the Trickster

Senpet Deity of Deception
Reaction: When you destroy a Holding to use its ability, pay 1 Water and the Holding's printed Copper and Water costs. Bring the Holding back into play bowed.

"Toth delights in toying with the simple truths of the universe. His greatest joy is derived from the torment of others, whose reliance upon the substance of fact he twists beyond measure." -Nepherus

0

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Apaze

Vishnu the Preserver

Ivory Kingdoms Deity of Creation
Attacking Heroes each have -1S.

"The Wheel of Rebirth spins endlessly through the Void, never pausing or slowing, ever-always the same. Vishnu was there at the start, as were Shiva and the Mystic, and has since become the Preserver, whose purpose is to usher us into the next cycle." -Kyurhi the Wanderer, Jakla Spiritualist and Hunter of Ruhmal

0

© Illus. © 1999 Frank Gumbach

A Better World

"Perhaps in the end," Adira considered, taking hold of the last of the Caliph's banners and tearing it down, "the best legacy we can hope for is to leave a better world behind than the one we were born into." -The End of Age, Fin

6

© Illus. © 1999 Tommy Pons

A Call to Arms

Open: Allying Heroes gain +1S/+1K while in battle, until the end of the turn. Draw a card.

The Erba'a alliance: Moto, Yodotai, Hanif, Ra'Shari. Kiyoshi observed the gathering army and smiled, knowing that soon neither the tyrant nor the Senpet would be a threat any longer. -"The Shattered Jewel," Part One

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Proff Herbert

A Coming Storm

Open Omen: At the beginning of each Dawn Phase, any player with more than one City Section with the same name must pay Water equal to the number of such City Sections he or she controls. This does not apply to Jewels of the Desert.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Proff Herbert

A Commander's Courage

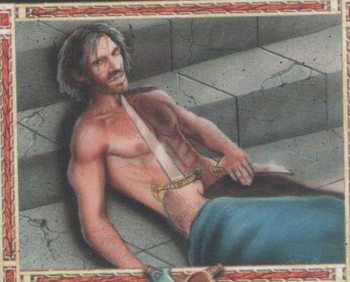

Battle: Add 2S to one attacking Hero.
Reaction: Play this card immediately after a Follower attached to a Senpet Hero engages. Double the Follower's Strength. Destroy the Follower at the end of the battle.

"I watched as the horizon vanished behind the Moto Horde and their allies." -Kabdar Fassal

2

© Illus. © 1999 Liz Danforth

A Moment's Hesitation

Open Omen: No player can play Reactions from any hand or card in play.

"Never hesitate. All animals fight to the death when cornered—even human ones." -from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. © 1999 Rob Pinar

A Vision of Doom

Open Omen: Raiding Heroes have Raid -1 in addition to any other modifiers.

"Jangir warned us that this time would come," Marik told Kiyoshi as the Horde set out. "He also said that nothing but disaster would follow." "Jangir is a traitor and a fool. Look around you! How could such a force fall!"

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Proff Herbert

Across the Desert at Night

Night: If you have not declared an attack this turn, create an Attack Phase against your opponents.
Day: Raid one or more opponents. You cannot raid again this turn.

"The night is our ally," the Old Man said. Fatima shook her head. "But it does not have to be our only ally."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Heather Horton

al Ashwa!

Reaction: Play this card immediately before you begin the Battle Action Segment of a battle in which you are the attacker. If the City Section is destroyed in the battle, gain 3 Water on one of your City Sections.

Abresax wrestled for control of his warriors as the massive Moto Horde collided with the Senpet Garrison. The desert raiders' vengeance seemed limitless.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Tim Gerbner

An Avatar Enraged

Event Reaction: Play this card when a City Section is destroyed. Send a Story in play to its controller's hand.

She left a trail of angry revenge behind her as she scoured the Senpet Garrison for her surrogate father Hekau. But what she found was no longer the man she had known; indeed, she wasn't even sure it was still human. -"Amru's Tale," Part Six

4

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Miller

Assassin Gathering Well

Open: Move any number of Followers or Items from one of your unbowed Heroes to one or more of your other unbowed Heroes, without bowing the Heroes.

"For all his faults, my queen, Hekau was right. The voice of Lady Sun has been snuffed out, and the Daughters of the Mountain follow." -Ramontet

2

© Illus. © 1999 Anthony Gralshi

Augury

Buried Reaction: Play this card immediately after raiding Heroes are assigned to a raid in which you are a defender. Switch the places of two of your City Sections.

Kiyoshi had thought the nightmares were over when he obtained control of the Moto, but now his nights are plagued with images of crystal and light, and the familiar face of an old foe.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Dorman

Away with You!

Council Open: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 10 or more. Send a Council or Omen card in play to its owner's Saved pile.

The endless bickering of her subjects wore thin her resolve, and the Caliph eventually cast them all out, denying every one. She had far more important proposals to consider.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Dorman

Bad Dates

Reaction: Target a Hero who has just successfully raided you. All Water tokens on the Hero become -1 Ka Poison tokens. The poisoned Hero can bow as a Day action to remove a Poison token.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Val Mayevik

Baha al Din's Brass Lamp

Day: Target a jinn in play. Destroy the jinn.

Once the prize complement of the Tongue's personal collection, the Brass Lamp has been stolen. Who or what toppled its museum remains a mystery.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Bryon Wickwitz

Bitter Shadows

Reaction: Play this card when a Hero successfully raids one of your City Sections. The Hero carries 1 less Water from the City Section.

Within the walls of the city, the battle between sisters continued. Shala's followers were careful, worried for their sisters as well as their claim to power, but those of Fatima were far from kind.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

Black Earth

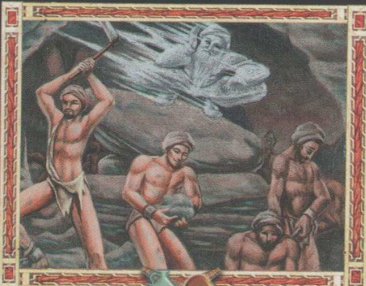

Reaction: Play this card immediately before a Battle Action Segment in which you have at least one unit. Move one of your unbowed units from another battle into the battle.

It is a world between worlds, where even spirits are loathe to venture. -"Gaheris' Tale," Part One

3

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

Blessing of the Prophet

Buried Reaction: Play this card immediately after you produce an effect from one of your Holdings by destroying the Holding. Return the Holding to play bowed.

The Hanij claim that the spirit of the Prophet, who saved their forefathers during the great trek across the dunes, still walks among them in the mines. Once, one of the newcomers saw him as well, but called him by another name.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Frank Gehbeck

Blockade

Open Omen: Heroes with more than 3 Strength cannot be committed to or moved into battle.

Indira was calm despite the angry fires licking the cold night sky all around her. "By order of the Caliph, the fighting will end," she said flatly, "or you will all be put to death."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wackwitz

Blood Calls for Blood

If you play this card as a thrust and it is not successfully parried, the duel immediately ends in a tie.

"I will know what has happened to Fatima, impostor, even if I must wrench it from your broken carcass!" -Faida

2

© Illus. © 1999 Audrey Corman

Blood Money

Reaction: Play this card when paying a Copper cost for bringing a card into play. Bow one of your Heroes. The card's cost is reduced by the Hero's Influence.

The merchant guilds could no longer stand by idly and wait for the Caliph and her precious Senpet to defend the city. They had to take matters into their own hands, so the blood of a thousand dead souls went to work.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Patrick Sluiter

Blood Oath

Open Omen: Every Hero challenged to a duel gains +1K until the end of the turn.

"It is an oath made over blood and water, the two most precious resources in the desert." -Mendi-Duad

2

© Illus. © 1999 Mark Tein

Borrowed Time

Reaction: Play this card when bringing a Hero into play. Bow and destroy one of your Heroes of the same Faction. Reduce the Copper and Water costs of the first Hero by the Copper and Water costs of the destroyed Hero.

The Avatar relied heavily upon the Qabal for support. She was weak from her trials in the desert, but Dazruud felt little better. It was as if his chest were trying to explode.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wackwitz

Buried Alive

Council Day: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 7 or more. While this card is in play, all cards normally discarded to Saved piles are buried. This card remains in play until another Council card is brought into play.

Several hours after the release of the goddess, the Jackal awoke within a casket buried deep beneath the Ashalan city.
-Zahra's Tale, Part Three

2

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Manning

By Force of Will Alone

If you play this card as a thrust or a parry in a duel, immediately draw three cards.

Through a haze of red, Kamilah clutched her shattered arm and pushed forward, following the drops of her sister's blood. She hoped that the trail left by the point of her sword would be enough to lead the rest of the Ebonites to her.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Eric Bulak

By My Blood

Reaction: Play this card when an Unaligned Hero enters play under your control. The Hero permanently gains +1S/+1K and the trait of your Faction.

"By my blood, mistress, I am yours to command." The figure on the floor was known to the Caliph, but his words were strange, and she required a moment's consideration.
"Rise, Jackal," she ordered finally, "and make your plea."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Tom Bombardillo

By Order of the Caliph

Day: The player with the Caliph's Blessing must bow one of his or her Heroes to gain 1 Water. If that is not possible, the player must discard 2 Water.

In the final days, the Caliph's demands became ever more erratic, and even her faithful Askaree feared her violent temper. Then came the command that the Senpet could not abide.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Jennifer Maher

By Royal Edict

Day Omen: Beginning with the turn after this Omen enters play, each Copper-producing Holding produces twice as much Copper as usual.

Long after the screams ended, the palace remained still. The Caliph's chambers were unnaturally quiet, and she ordered away all of the guards—even her loyal Askaree.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Carl Frank

Captured!

Battle: Bow all of the cards in one of your units. Target an opposing unit with total Strength less than double the total Strength of your unit. Send the target unit home from the battle, bowed.

"You forget, little one," Raya said to Jangir's slumbering form. "I was there, too. I know what you are and why you are here. But your hold on humankind is soon to change."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Diana Vick

Casualties of Fate

Open: Target a Hero. Until the end of the turn, other players cannot target the Hero in battle.

"Wife, I have walked alongside a living god and know the impossible fate of the future. How can I ever return home again?" —Gaheri's Tale, Part Six

1

© Illus. © 1999 Mike Rabe

Charity

Reaction: Play this card immediately before you play a Council card. You are considered to have additional Influence for playing the card equal to half of the Copper you pay to bring this card into play (rounded down).

3

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Westcott

City in Flames

Reaction: Play this card when a player declares an attack. Target one of your unbowed units. Pay Copper equal to the total Strength of the unit's Followers. The unit gains the Flying trait until the end of the turn.

The Ebonites struggled to control the chaos within the city, but the Moto Horde was much too large—and much too determined—to be thwarted in its revenge. —The Shattered Jewel, Part Four

2

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Maher

Contest of Wills

Battle: One of your unbowed Heroes challenges an opposing Hero of your choice to an unrefusable duel.

Reaction: Immediately before Fate values are revealed in a raid, your Hero, who must be unbowed, challenges the raiding Hero to an unrefusable duel. If the raiding Hero wins, the raid continues as if the City Section were undefended. If your Hero wins, the raid fails.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Carl Frank

Convening the Twelve

Council: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 9 or more. Target a City Section in play. Heroes gain +1S while attacking the City Section while this card is in play. This card remains in play until a City Section is destroyed.

"This is the last time we shall meet this way," Katani said to the Council. "At dawn tomorrow, the Templars and their Principals inherit the mantle."

3

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Counterattack

Reaction: Play this card immediately after a battle in which you were the defender. Straighten all of your Heroes who were in the battle. Each straightened Hero permanently loses 1 Ka.

"Back, dogs! Regroup, or Hensatti will set your hides out upon the sands to dry!" —Atep

3

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Pawelek

Dangerous Maneuvers

Reaction: Play this card when an Archery engagement targets one of your cards. The engagement is reduced to 0.

Puja scanned the pedestal for a way to remove the idol without disturbing the pillar of light. The Ruhmal had been thorough in their defenses. -"Puja's Tale," Part One

2

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Dark Disgrace

Open: Target a Hero. The Hero gains the Sahir trait until the end of the turn.

"They are the front line of a new kind of war, a breed as yet unknown on this plane, with power unfathomed by mortals. They will be the champions of a new age, our front line against the coming darkness of Kaleel's Legion." -Arbiter of the Qanon, the being formerly known as Hekau

2

© Illus. © 1999 Pamela Shantzen

Death by Scarab

Day: Destroy one of your Heroes. Gain Water equal to the Hero's printed Water cost on any of your City Sections.

Day: Destroy one of your Stories. Gain 5 Water on any of your City Sections.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Ramon Perez

Death of a Butcher

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes is destroyed in a duel. If the duel's winner had more starting Influence than your Hero, that Hero is also destroyed.

Gohet did not have to look far to see others held just as he was. The blood of each spilled into a brazier below, to return as a thick vapor that dried the body and shriveled the organs. The Senpet were quite proud of their keen sense of justice.

3

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Dehydration

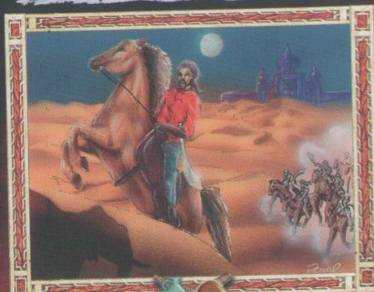

Open Omen: Water produced or gained through card effects is reduced to 0.

Shagala's father once said, "There is a grain of sand for everyone who has drowned in the desert heat." Today Shagala carries a pouch full of dead friends.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Fred Herbert

Desert Ambush

Reaction: Play this card when one of your defending units engages. All of your City Sections' Water is considered in the battle for the purpose of absorbing damage.

"We'll have a better chance of getting word back to the city if we separate," Daron had said to him before heading out into the sands. "Ride as quickly as you can!"

2

© Illus. © 1999 Rob Prior

Desert Spring

Buried Reaction: Play this card when bringing a Hero or Follower into play. Reduce the Hero or Follower's Water cost to 0.

Many of the Yodatal did not even bother removing their armor before wading out into the cool stream.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Heather Bauman

Desperate Prayer

Reaction: Play this card when a Champion is brought into play. Get your Champion from your deck, show it to the other players, and add him or her to your hand. When you bring your Champion into play, he or she costs 0 Water and 5 less Copper.

With the fighting drawing ever closer to the Palace of Wonders, the ruhman in the House of the Heavens doubled their efforts. Shilah would hear them this day, or everyone would die. -"The Shattered Jewel," Part Five

1

© Illus. © 1999 Tom Bondallo

Desperate Reserves

Reaction: Play this card when a player declares a raid or attack on you. Straighten as many units as you wish at a cost of 1 Water per unit.

"This city will fall!" Jubal the Knife screamed to the commoners gathered about him at the bazaar. "Unless you, and you, and you all choose to fight for it! Are you with me?"

3

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

Diversion

Reaction: Play this card when another player's City Section is destroyed in battle. Return the City Section to play with 1 Water on it. Target one of the player's Holdings. Destroy the Holding.

"Do you see where this madness has brought us, Janan? Your petty squabbles with Za'nul are going to cost us our lives!"
—The Tale of the Last Pirate, Part Two

3

© Illus. ©1999 Jim Pavetex

Divided We Fall

Open Omen: Defending Heroes gain +1S.

"Our city is designed for wonder, not defense, my lord. We must remedy that if we are to protect her from her enemies."
—Shessim

1

© Illus. ©1999 William O'Connor

Divination

Day: Draw and discard a card. Target a player. You may look at a number of cards up to the card's Fate value, picked randomly from the player's hand.

The Grey Woman laid four cards before the Erba leaders, pointing to each in turn: Death, The Chariot, The Moon, and The Hanged Man. "There is little but change ahead—a storm without end."

3

© Illus. ©1999 Pamela Shantzen

Drunken Stupor

Open: Target a Follower whose Strength is greater than its Hero's Strength. Reduce the Follower's Strength to its Hero's Strength.

Sometimes it's easiest not to believe everything you see.

2

© Illus. ©1999 Bryan Wackwitz

Duel of Wits

Day: One of your unbowed Heroes challenges another player's Hero to an unrefusable duel. Compare Influence instead of Ka (0-Influence Heroes are considered to have 1 Influence), but otherwise treat this as a normal duel. The loser does not die, but pays 2 Water to the winner, or all of his or her Water if he or she has less than 2.

2

© Illus. ©1999 Heather Brunen

Enemy of My Enemy

Battle: Every allying Hero in your army gains +2S until the end of the battle.

Senpet, Ruhmal, and city-dweller alike found a common foe in the last hours.

2

© Illus. ©1999 Bryan Wackwitz

Every Man's Army

Day Omen: Each Hero and Follower with more than 3 Strength has its Strength reduced to 3.

Maximus stood his ground, prepared to defend the canyon to the last. He could feel the air whispering of his glory around him, and the earth seemed to rumble in applause.

1

© Illus. ©1999 Alan Cowata

Face of a Child

Day Omen: At the beginning of the Dawn Phase, beginning with the Blessed player, each player must discard 1 Water.

"Sani'a, my sweet, little sister. What have they done to you?"
—Adnan

1

© Illus. ©1999 Audrey Cornin

Faith

Day: If this is your first action of the turn and you have not brought any cards into play, discard your entire hand. Draw up to your maximum hand size.

"Fear and respect are the same. Lady Sun provides for those who understand this truth." —Duqaq

2

© Illus. ©1999 CH Burnett

Hidden Shame

Reaction: Play this card when an engagement destroys one or more of your Water tokens. Put a -1 Ka token on the engaging Hero.

"By Octavius! He is of our breed!" Katarine exclaimed. "Yet scarred terribly by this barren land," Aurelian answered, "and beaten more than once by its crude people as well." The weakened man's words were a hoarse whisper. There are more...." -"The Tale of Soraph the Free Man," Part Four

2

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

Hole in the Sky

Battle Omen: All Jinn in this battle are destroyed at the end of the battle.

"There was a hole in the sky, as if I were looking into a cold, absent mirror and nothing was looking back."
-from A Tale of the Quest, a play by Harik the Mad

1

© Illus. © 1999 Kt. Lancaster

Immortal Council

Open: Bow one of your Heroes. Straighten another of your Heroes.

The Fist of the Pharaoh knelt before the idol and prayed for guidance. Should he order his armies to follow the commands of the Caliph and attack the Moto outside the city, it would surely mean immeasurable deaths on both sides.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Calahan

Immortality's End

Battle Omen: Heroes without attached Followers cannot engage.

The Old Man remained still even when the owl began to squall loudly at the figure looming behind him. He had been expecting her for a lifetime, and the end of his torment--indeed, of all of the Assassins' torment--was close at hand.
-Fatima's Tale, Part Five

3

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Inhuman Condition

Open: Until the end of the turn, Heroes cost 1 additional Copper to return or bring into play.

Duqaq watched impassively as people gathered by the slaving well, calling rudely to the gypsy held prisoner within. He did not move as they threw garbage at him and laughed at his cries. But when they began stabbing at him with a thrilled gleam in their eyes, the holy man stepped among them and raised his staff.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Cris Dornaus

Inner Doubt

Reaction: Play this card when an opposing army with more than one unit engages. The engagement is negated, and the engaging unit straightens. The engaging player can immediately engage different cards, if possible.

"Tell me where they are, you little grub!" Zenaida's screams scarcely paused since Hekau's capture, and Tabari began to question his role in the tragedy. -Amru's Tale, Part Five

2

© Illus. © 1999 Cris Dornaus

Interrogation

Open Omen: No Omens can be played until next turn. Destroy this Omen at the end of this turn.

"Now, Hekau. How were you able to kill one of my Khadi?" demanded the Caliph.
"We... don't know," he stammered.
"I believe you," she returned. Then, to the others: "Send word to Hensatti that we have her traitor."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Cris Dornaus

Ivory Boxes

Reaction: Play this card when paying an Influence cost to produce 3 Influence.

One of the first treasures brought back from the Ivory Kingdoms by early traders, containers made from the bone of elephants are rumored to be able to capture the souls of the living, though many are also thought to contain the spirits of the dead.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Monika Livingston

J'li'lu's Fire

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes initiates an Archery engagement. The Hero can target the City Sections Water with the engagement (but not the City Section itself).

The Yodatai brought with them the secret of thunderous fireballs, which they launched mercilessly over the walls of the city for many hours before the Horde attacked.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Amanda Grubbs

Just Business

Battle Omen: Archery engagements in this battle have -2 Strength.

"The largest merchant caravan in recent memory is halted by one woman!" one of the merchant kings exclaimed. "How?" Kasib al Atif calmly replied. "She is no ordinary woman, and anything is possible with the right motivation."
—Jamilah's Tale, Part Three

2

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Muller

Kara's Training

Open: Target a Hero with more than 1 Influence. The Hero gains the Tactician trait until the end of the turn.

"When can I return to my people?" Kara asked. "Do you understand yet why you are here?" Maymun responded. "No," she answered truthfully. "Then we still have much work." —Kara's Tale, Part Six

3

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Dorman

Khadi Command

Reaction: Play this card when a Hero accepts a challenge from one of your Heroes. Thrust. The thrust becomes two thrusts, each with strength equal to the thrust card's Fate value. The opposing Hero must parry them separately. The duel then continues as usual.

Keseth helplessly heared his beloved Nephurus. "He knows our power source," the voice inside him said. "ill him."
—Keseth's Tale, Part Six

1

© Illus. © 1999 April Lee

Khadi Overlord

Council Day: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 8 or more. While this card in effect, players must pay 3 Copper when playing a Night action or declaring a raid, in addition to any other costs. This card remains in play until another Council card enters play.

The body of the Caliph's first victim is only a shell for something else. Something that feeds on the hearts of the innocent.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wacknitz

Knife Fight

Day: One of your unbowed Heroes challenges another Hero of your choice. The challenged Hero can refuse the duel by paying 3 Water.

Night after night Faida scoured the dark and lonely hovels of the city, searching for the soul of the First-Born. Her patience was growing thin, and with each new challenge, her victims grew in number.

2

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Know Your Weakness

Reaction: Play this card immediately before you engage one of your Heroes. Bowed Heroes cannot absorb any of the damage.

Standing outside the city and looking at her walls, Fassal said, "This is when we are weakest. We are weary of battle, unprepared for a new threat. And that is when they usually come."

1

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Let Him Bleed

If you play this card as a parry, your Hero takes no damage from the thrust.

"If you have wounded your enemy but he has not wounded you, you have done enough. Let him bleed, and he will die."
—from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. © 1999 CH Barnett

Let None Interfere

Reaction: Play this card immediately after an attack is declared in which you are the attacker or defender, but before anyone commits units. Each non-engagement action taken during this Attack Phase costs 1 additional Water.

The Khadi Overlord waited high overhead. No matter which duelist won, they would both die this day.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wacknitz

Lost to the Sands

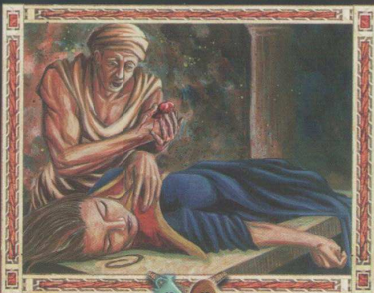

Battle: Send one attacking unit home from this battle, bowed.

The trail of the RaShari and Ashalan could be seen for many days after they vanished into the windswept dunes. Sometimes, when the moonlight shines upon the dunes in just the right way, it can be seen again.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Muller

Love of Siblings

Open: Bow and destroy one of your Heroes. Get a Hero of the same Faction from your Buried pile and add it to your hand.

"I... held her heart in my hands," Adnan muttered as Ashalla held him.
"It will take time," she said eventually. "Even if she can be brought back, she may not ever fully recover."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Gary McKee

Manhunt

Open: Target an Item attached to a bowed Hero. The Copper and Water costs of this card equal double the Copper and Water costs, respectively, of the Item. Destroy the Item.

Open: Pay 2 Copper. Target a Water token on a bowed Hero. Destroy the token.

First they murdered his master. Then they came after him. But Dharr could turn this in his favor. —Dharr's Tale, Part One

2

© Illus. © 1999 Lassime Lake

Meeting Your Destiny

Battle: Target a Hero. The Hero gains a Strength bonus equal to his or her printed Strength.

"Today is the day I meet my god."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Arneson

Message from the Dead

Open: Target a Hero. The Hero gains +1S/+1K until the end of the turn for each Hero in your Buried pile.

"As they worked to remove the Senpet bonds from the old slave, his crazed ravings rang in their ears without end: 'Hundreds! Thousands! An entire colony of them!' When he was finally free and calm overcame him, they asked again what he had seen within the Jandag, and his only reply was, 'Pale demons' —from A Tale of The Eleventh Tribe

1

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Gianni

Milk of the Scorpion

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes enters a duel. Both Heroes in the duel have their Ka replaced by their Influence for the duel. The duel's results remain the same.

The fighting in the streets was a chorus of angels compared to the violent words within Selget's chambers, and through it all, the kitten that had allowed her to speak the native tongue was tense, as if drawn away by a distant force.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Ford Herbert

Narrow Escape!

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes is destroyed in battle. Move another of your units in the same battle to another of the defender's City Sections where the battle has not yet resolved.

Kalassim burst out of the river and headed for the shore, knowing the creature was right behind him. "I must warn the Council! The Nagah have returned!"

3

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillipps

Never Look Back

Open Omen: When a Hero loses a duel, the Hero's controller must pay 1 Water in addition to any other effects of losing the duel.

"We must leave now," Kacha urged, pulling Punjat away from the bodies. "We cannot be here when she arrives." As they vanished into the trees, Punjat heard something begin to feed behind them.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Domans

New Allies

Battle: Play this card at a battle in which you are the defender and have no units. This card enters play at this battle as a 2S/2K Unaligned Hero. Destroy the Hero at the end of the battle.

"The Senpet are weary of defending the city, my friend, and their forces are stretched far too thin. We can, of course, assure you a place within her walls when the slaughter is over."
 —Kalim the Sly

3

© Illus. © 1999 Mike Rabe

New Beginnings

Open Omen: All Jinn gain the ability Jinn Open: Bow this Jinn. Increase the Copper Production of one of your Holdings by 2.

"Given time and the right incentive, even the most hateful can be saved." With every word, Lurza's form dissolved further, revealing...

1

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Bonkhe

No Escape

Reaction: Play this card immediately before revealing Fate values in a raid. A battle takes place between the opposing Heroes. The raid's defender becomes the battle's defender, and the raiding Hero becomes the battle's attacker. If the attacker is destroyed, the raid fails.

2

© Illus. ©1999 David Leri

Nursed Back to Health

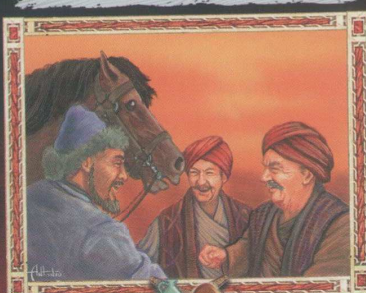

Reaction: Reduce the Strength of an opposing engagement by 1. You can play this card even if you are the defender and have no units in the battle.

The Grandmother inspected the wound again, then fell into another long night of telling yarns from ages past. She spoke of heroes who had come before and those that were yet to come, but she failed to speak of the boy before her, the wound that would change history, and the darkness that would follow.

1

© Illus. ©1999 Ken Meyer Jr.

Old Friends

Day Omen: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 15 or more. Any player who produces 30 Influence this way as a Day action wins the game at the end of the turn.

"Jangir, old friend!" the gypsies called as he approached. "It has been too long!"
"Yes," the Moto replied as they embraced. "I am here to see Raya."

3

© Illus. ©1999 Anthony Grubbs

Onaja

Open Omen: Each player gains 2 Water on one of his or her City Sections at the beginning of each Dawn Phase.

"Shhhhh. You are among family now, little one," slathered the jinn of Infinite Eyes. "You may have been born to those deluded Ashalan, but we made that event possible, and now you are going to return the favor."
—"They Collect Their Due," Part Four

1

© Illus. ©1999 Lissanne Lake

One Dinari

Reaction: Play this card when paying a Copper cost to produce 1 Copper.

"One copper to one who has thirty is just another copper. But to one who has nothing, it is the world."
—from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. ©1999 Christina Wild

One Water

Day: Gain 1 Water on one of your City Sections.

"Rich people, powerful people, crafty people, wise people, witty people, handsome people, and cunning people: without water, they are all dead people."
—from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. ©1999 Katie Inglio

Plague of Cobras

Battle: Target a Hero. The Hero has -2S until the end of the battle.

When the Nagah arrived, they brought something with them.

1

© Illus. ©1999 Aaron Madsen

Poisoning the Well

Reaction: Play this card when you successfully raid a City Section. Destroy Water on that City Section equal to double the Water the raiding Hero can steal. The raiding Hero carries no Water from the raid.

Moto Sumah went mad after her little boy was poisoned by the Senpet.

0

© Illus. ©1999 Paul Carrick

Political Maneuver

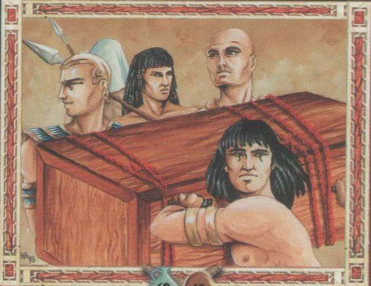

Council Day: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 10 or more. Until the end of the turn, all Heroes bowing to engage cannot straighten next turn.

"The Khadi and the Senpet are military allies, but their civic positions are widely removed. This is where we must strike if we are to drive them apart." —Enigma

4

© Illus. ©1999 Lissanne Lake

Precious Cargo

Reaction: Play this card when a City Section is destroyed by an army containing one of your Heroes. Attach 2 Water to the Hero.

Behind the Serpet, the merchant caravan burned. No one noticed them cart away the bulky cargo—except for the one who started it all.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Heather Burton

Promise of the Young Ones

Battle: Move to this battle one of your Heroes with more than 2 Ka not currently in a battle.

The guardians of the Avatar led her ever deeper into the bowels of the city, watchful for the dangers of which the Ra'Shari had warned them. Dawuud, Shala, Adrianna—all were led by the one known as Kabdar Fassal.
—“Zahra's Tale,” Part One

1

© Illus. © 1999 Ramona Perez

Purity of Conquest

Battle: Send a Hero without attached Followers home from this battle, bowed. If you are the defender, you can play this card without a unit at the battle.

Aurelian was swift in his response: “We were sent here to observe the heathens’ resources and defenses, but they have proven as savage as any we have seen. Let them burn in conquest’s purifying fire!” —“The Tale of Soraph the Free Man,” Part Five

1

© Illus. © 1999 Amy Lee Poying

Qolat Machinations

Day: If you have not taken an action this turn, put a Qolat token on your Stronghold. At the beginning of each Dawn Phase, if a Qolat token is on the Stronghold, put another Qolat token on it. You can, as a Reaction to one of your thrusts or engagements, bow the Stronghold and destroy all of its Qolat tokens to increase the thrust or engagement damage by 1 point for every token destroyed.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Jennifer Mahr

Quick Justice

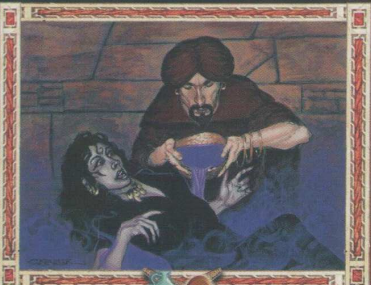

Reaction: Play this card immediately after the Night Phase but before the End Phase. All other players must discard until their hand size is equal to or less than yours.

Qays braced himself against the balustrade and waited for the killer’s outline to appear in the shadowy doorway. Then, when it leapt at him, Qays ducked low, pushing up and out.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Frank Grambeck

Raising the Dead

Night Buried: Move one card from your Buried pile to your Saved pile.

The Qabal blew heavily upon the offering, willing Raya’s soul forth from the vile prison to which the Jackals had consigned it. Smooth streams of living smoke poured over her still, ashen form. Raya would wake, or the Qabal would die trying.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Garrick

Retribution

Reaction: Play this card immediately after a Holding bows to produce an effect other than Copper. Destroy the Holding.

Galerius exhibited a penchant for shrugging off the magicks of the desert peoples.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Monika Livingston

Rite of Assassination

Unique • This card costs 2 less Copper for Assassin players.

Reaction: Play this card when you destroy another player’s Unique Hero through an engagement or duel. This card enters play as your rightmost City Section with 1 Strength, 3 Water, and Water Capacity of 3.

Three hundred years and countless children gone, but the curse was finally over.

3

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Rogue's Fortune

Battle: Target one of your bowed Heroes in this battle. Pay Copper equal to the Hero’s Strength plus Ka. Straighten the Hero.

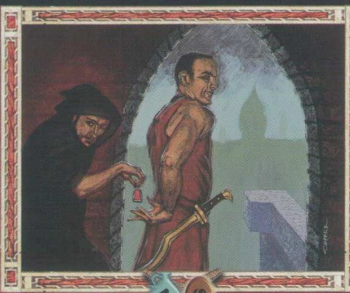

“She is deceit’s lover, the blind betrayer of Fate,” Faida told the Old Man. “She is as lost to us as your own daughter. We must end her renegade activity now!”

2

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Blood of a Jinn

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes is destroyed by absorbing damage. Leftover damage is negated.

It can heal any wound, but the soul suffers in the body's place.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Carrick

The City of Bronze

Open Omen: Every Sahir has -1S/-1K. Every Jinn gains +1S. No Jinn can be summoned while this Omen is in play.

It glides across the dunes, and all within its magnificent shadow are struck dumb. Those who tarry too long beneath its boiling cloud suffer the wrath of one hundred angry jinn.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Theresa Brandon

The Cleansing

Day: Bow one of your Human Heroes. The Hero challenges another player's Nonhuman Hero to an unrefusable duel.

"This one is new," the first Templar said. "There must be something that draws them here." Neither noticed the understanding within the Nagah's eyes, which had swiveled upward to watch them.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Ciro Dorman

The End of Oppression

Council Open: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 15 or more. Spells cannot be cast and Khadi Heroes cannot be returned to play until after the end of next turn.

After one last look at the city they had once controlled with an iron fist, the last of the Khadi slipped into the sewers' darkness, dragging the two Ashalan prizes they had won from the Silver Tongue.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Bryon Wickwitz

The Face of Evil

Day: Target another player's Hero with 3 or more Ka or one of your Heroes. The Hero has +2S/-2K until the end of the turn.

Keseth's eyes were fixed upon the pulsing core of power within the simple bone container. He struggled with the tendrils of living energy coursing into him but somehow knew that he was already lost. -"Keseth's Tale," Part Five

1

© Illus. © 1999 Monika Hingsone

The Final Sacrifice

Jinn Battle: Bow one of your jinn in this battle. Bow an opposing Hero. Destroy the Hero if he or she has the Sahir trait.

"Each of us is a vessel for something more, a being of immense potential that has rested within us from the beginning. When they finally awake, we cannot hope to survive, but for the ultimate power we must make the ultimate sacrifice." -Kurrai al Ayn, "The Tale of the Qanon," Part Two

2

© Illus. © 1999 Tessanne Lake

The Final Strike

Open: Destroy one of your unbowed Holdings. Destroy another Holding in play with a Fate value equal to or lower than that of the destroyed Holding.

"They are demons, I tell you! I saw one of them rise from the dead to take his killer with him!" -Adnan the Elusive

1

© Illus. © 1999 Theodor Black

The Goddess Ascendant

Reaction: If you have played The Goddess Enraged this turn, play this card immediately before the End Phase. If no "Kirin" City Section is in play, add a Unique "Kirin" City Section with 0 Strength, 2 Water, and Water Capacity of 2 to the right of your rightmost City Section. If the "Kirin" City Section is in play at the end of your next turn, you win the game.

"...Forever." -"The Awakening," Part Five

4

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Goddess Enraged

Buried Night: If you have played The Goddess Reborn this turn, your Heroes gain an additional Raid +1 and Carry +1 until the end of the turn. Discard your hand and draw four cards.

"...Leaving them to a bold new age where new heroes can be born into the struggles ahead and where our dreams for them can be remembered..." -"The Awakening," Part Four

3

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Goddess Reborn

Buried Day: If you have played The Goddess Unleashed this turn, put 1 Water on one of your Heroes.

"...To abandon this realm of humans that we have so carefully guided since the dawn of known time..."
—The Awakening, Part Three

2

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Goddess Unleashed

You can have up to six copies of this card in your deck.

Open: Target a Hero. The Hero gains +1S or +1K until the end of the turn.

"At long last we are ready to leave our ancient roost, to soar amongst the gods we once were..."
—The Awakening, Part Two

1

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Heart of the Common Man

Buried Day: Every Hero in play has -1S until the end of the turn. Every Follower in play gains +1S until the end of the turn.

"A hero has the wisdom to awaken the courage that sleeps in the heart of the common man."
—from The Forty-Seven Sayings of Mekhem

1

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillips

The Last Days

Battle: If you are the defender, target one of your Heroes in this battle. Bow the Hero. Transfer Water from this City Section to the Hero at a cost of 1 Copper per token.

The kings of the Houses of Dahab silently watched as the first fires spread. They knew what had to be done, though even they dreaded the decision.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Eric Bick

The Long Silence

Reaction: Play this card immediately before one of your Heroes is destroyed. The Hero is imprisoned in an opposing player's City Section of the player's choice instead. The Hero slides underneath the City Section as if attached to it. The Hero is not considered in play until the City Section is destroyed, upon which time the Hero returns home bowed.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Waknitz

The Mark of Kali

Reaction: Play this card immediately before the Battle Action Segment of a battle to which you have assigned one of your Heroes. Bow an opposing Hero with an attached Item or Follower.

The Jakla tribesman looked sullenly at the body. He had seen the mark countless times, but it disturbed him to find it in this small harem. The Ruhmal had grown bolder—or more desperate.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Pivete

The Pale Moon's Glare

Battle: If you are the Blessed player, send a unit home from this battle, bowed. The Caliph's Blessing passes to the player on your left and does not move at the end of the turn.

Dawuud screamed in pain as the New Moon ripped through him, but he knew that the retreating Moto could now escape. A feeble smile crept across his lips and he lay dying, awaiting the moment of death.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Eric Anderson

The Weight of Dreams

Open Omen: During the End Phase, each player may reshuffle a card from his or her Saved pile into his or her deck.

Abdul-Malik looked down upon the sleeping city and took a deep breath. "I have the weight of dreams," he said, his voice shaking. Then he let go of the spire and let himself fall.

0

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Madsen

Tomb-Raiding

Day: Bow one of your Heroes. Target another player. Draw a card and place it face-down, or lay a card from your hand face-up. The other player reveals either the top card of his or her deck or a card from his or her hand. If your card's Fate value is higher than that of the other player's card, the other player must pay you Water equal to the Hero's Fate value, or all of his or her Water if there is not enough. If your Fate value is lower, destroy the Hero. Discard the revealed cards.

1

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

Trade Embargo

Open Omen: Each player can only straighten one Holding without cost during the Dawn Phase. Additional Holdings can be straightened in the Dawn Phase at a cost of 1 Water per Holding.

Though she had lost the ability to walk, the crone would not be cast aside in the stride of life. She took interest in affairs of market and state, and was the first to act when the city began to burn, shutting down entire caravan-serai with a single word.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Tom Bondadillo

Truth of the Prophecy

Council Day: Bow a number of your cards whose total Influence is 10 or more. Until another Council card enters play, a Story Victory requires 7 Story Points.

After countless hours of painstaking research, the Caliph finally knew the identity of the last Avatar. By tomorrow at dawn, the Avatar would be dead.

4

© Illus. © 1999 Tom Bondadillo

Twilight Terrors

Buried Battle: Target a Hero. The Hero has -2K until the end of the turn.

During that brief moment between day and night, when the world stills and everything is washed over in a pale red, neither Shilah's warm caress nor Kaleel's bitter howl exist, leaving those daring enough to share an experience without equal—until the others come.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Patrick Kochakly

Ulterior Motive

Battle: Bow one of your Heroes in this battle. Straighten another of your Heroes in this battle.

"I have rescued your precious prisoner, and I can do more for you," said the Eye of Night, "but I require something in return." Kiyoshi looked on him with contempt borne by blood, but listened anyway.

—"The Tale of the Fourth Avatar," Part Three

2

© Illus. © 1999 Randy Asplund Falt

Unbound

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes wins a duel. The Hero permanently gains +2S/+2K.

With a sigh of resignation, Nephurus opened the Book of the Dead over the bound figure of his former apprentice and uttered the words that would free him.

—"Keseth's Tale," Part Seven

2

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Maher

Unexpected Rescue

Reaction: Play this card when an opponent engages. Reduce the damage by 2 points.

Reaction: Play this card immediately after you parry in a duel. Your Hero in the duel gains +2K until the end of the duel.

The questions from the Eye of Night became ever more insistent, and he spoke in her native tongue. Then he removed his wrap.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Crti Dorman

Victim of the East

Day: Target a player. The player must discard a card of his or her choice from his or her hand. Discard this card to the player's Saved pile.

"Four victims in two days. The Ruhmal have settled here," the Jakla tribesman said. "We have found the battleground on which the final war will be waged."

1

© Illus. © 1999 Tommy Huns

Vision of the End

Reaction: Play this card when another player's action targets one of your Heroes. The action's cost increases by 1 Water. If the player does not pay the additional cost, the Action is negated.

"It was painted by a wandering prophet," the owner explained, "before he vanished into the sands. He said that when the images came true, he would return."

2

© Illus. © 1999 Val Meyer

Voice of the Ten Thousand Gods

Battle Omen: The Strength of every Follower in this battle is reduced to 0.

They listen to the voices of ten thousand gods, believing that ignoring even one will bring misfortune. With the Caliph showing them such favor, it is no wonder Lady Sun despises us.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Bryan Wickwitz

Wisdom of the Stars

The illustration depicts a man with a shaved head and a white loincloth, standing in a small boat amidst a turbulent, swirling blue sea. He holds a long wooden staff horizontally across his chest with both hands. Facing him is a large, fierce dragon with a long, pointed snout, sharp teeth, and a single prominent red eye. The dragon's mouth is open, as if breathing fire or attacking. The scene is framed by a decorative border with a repeating geometric pattern. Below the illustration, there are two circular icons: a green one with a white 'U' and a brown one with a white 'C'. The card is held by ornate, dark-colored grips on the left and right sides.

Reaction: Play this card when you engage a Hero. Increase the damage by 2. Permanently reduce the Hero's Ka by 1.

"There is wisdom in the stars. If you obey them, they will reward you." –Kabdar Fassal

1

© Illus. © 1999 William O'Connor

War in the Streets

Reaction: Play this card immediately after an opposing army engages. You can only absorb the damage with Heroes and Followers. All opposing cards that participated in the engagement are destroyed.

Even before the Moto Horde descended upon the city, the streets were wracked with the wild and careless struggles of the Khadi and Qabal. It was as if they knew that these would be their last hours in battle.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Eric Holak

Water Bags

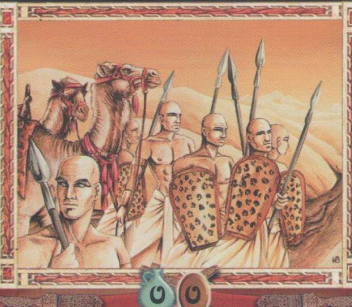

Reaction: Play this card when one of your City Sections is successfully raided. Take 1 Water from the raiding Hero and return it to the the City Section from which it was raided.

"Travel with company, never mistreat your camel, and always carry an ample number of water bags" –tradesmen proverb

3

With My Brother beside Me

Battle Omen: The attacker or defender in this battle can, as a Battle action, move a unit into this battle.

*Each morning, their army consumes more of the horizon.
While we wait, they are multiplying.*

1

© Illus. © 1999 Heather Brunton

Withdrawal

Battle Omen: Heroes without attached Followers have -2S/-2K, to a minimum of 1 Ka.

Beneath the shadow of the Ring of Fire, the Senpet legions departed. "Let it all burn," said Abresax. The Caliph will pay dearly for her betrayal."

1

© Illus. © 1999, Mark Pennington

Withheld Fury

Battle Omen: Followers engage for 2 additional points of damage.

The dirty mongrel-figure lurched forward, desperately trying to escape its pursuers, but fatigue and dehydration had weakened it. The first warrior raised her gleaming sword to fell it, but the second held her back, something unexpected catching his eye.
—The Tale of Soraph the Free Man," Part Three

1

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Alexander Bohm

Worth of the Dead

Reaction: Play this card when one of your Heroes is destroyed. Gain Copper equal to the total Fate values of the Hero's Items and Followers. You can spend the Copper on any one card before the end of the turn.

After the ritual, there are only scant moments to rob the victims before Kali-Ma's arrival.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Ron Chinnema

Young Love

Open Omen: If possible, each defending player must assign at least one of his or her units to defend at least one of his or her City Sections with an attacking unit assigned to it.

"What's happening?" Dena breathed, her face taut with concern.
"The Chronicle's ending," he answered, though within he knew that another was just beginning. —Dharr's Tale," Part Two

0

© Illus. © 1999 Lissanne Lake

2 Ajbār ibn Kaleel 4

2 5

Summon Jinn Malignity • Kaleel's Legion • Berserk
Day: Bow one of your Sahir to bring Ajbār ibn Kaleel into play.
Open: Bow Ajbār ibn Kaleel. Another Hero in play gains the Berserk trait until the end of the turn.

The Ashalan fought valiantly against the demon but eventually faltered. —They Collect Their Due," Part Three

3

© Illus. © 1999 Chris Dornan

al Amaq

2 7

Summon Jinn of Lost Hopes • Unique
Reaction: When a Hero is destroyed, bow one of your Sahir to bring al Amaq into play. Al Amaq becomes an exact duplicate of the Hero, copying permanent changes and traits but not attached tokens or cards. Al Amaq retains the Jinn trait. If al Amaq copies a Unique Hero, only one al Amaq can be in play at a time.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Jim Fowler

1 Alakrai 1

1 0

Summon Elder Jinn Trickster
For every card destroyed in his army, Alakrai gains +1S/+1K until the end of the turn.
Day: Bow one of your Sahir to bring this Jinn into play.

"Let me help! I really want to help! Come on! Let me help! Come on! Come on! Come on!..."

3

© Illus. © 1999 Jason Felix

2 Asifet of the Fleet 2

3 1

Summon Jinn of the Desert Tempest • Flying
Asifet enters play bowed. Asifet cannot attach more than one Follower. A Follower attached to Asifet gains the Flying trait.
Day: Bow one of your Sahir to bring Asifet into play.

As the horizon became a whipping cyclone of sand, Nephers closed his eyes and concentrated on the frightening truth he had learned.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Thomas Manning

3 Ayna, Jinn of Ranon 0

2 5

Summon Jinn of Brutal Harvest
Ayna is not destroyed if he has 0 Ka. Card effects do not affect Ayna's Ka. Ayna cannot be challenged or enter a duel.
Day: Bow one of your Sahir to bring Ayna into play.
Reaction: When a Battle Action Segment begins, destroy Ayn. Play a Battle Action. The Battle Action Segment then continues normally.

"We are whole once more."

3

© Illus. © 1999 Michael Phillip

Blighted Fields

0 0

Open: Bow one of your Sahir. Bow a Holding in play. The Holding cannot straighten next turn unless its controller discards 1 Water.

Marad of the gypsies stepped forward and raised his arms. Within moments, the farms along the banks of the Great Nahr'umar River began to dry up and flake away.
—The Shattered Jewel," Part Two

2

© Illus. © 1999 Craig Mohr

Blinded by Fate

0 2

Curse Reaction: When one of your Heroes enter a duel, bow one of your Sahir. During the duel, the opposing Hero can only parry from his or her deck. Cards discarded this way go to their player's Saved pile.

Rawij raced through the Caliph's dungeon until there was nowhere left to go. One of the doors led to freedom, he hoped, but the other led only to certain death.

3

© Illus. © 1999 KC Lancaster

Ceremony of the Black Heart

0 5

Battle: Bow one of your Sahir in this battle. The next opposing Hero that engages is destroyed at the end of the battle.

Keseth's dagger plunged deeply into the Black Heart, and there was a shrill wail from somewhere else in the palace.
—“Keseth's Tale,” Part Eight

2

© Illus. © 1999 Paul Garrick

Crysalis

0 3

Battle: Bow one of your Sahir. Make an Archery engagement against your opponent equal to the Sahir's Ka. You can split up the engagement's damage to target multiple cards; each instance of damage is independent of the others and treated separately.

Deep within the Senpet Garrison, Hekau awaited death. But something else would have its say first. In moments, the tendrils of smokeless fire began to seep from his body.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Ramon Perez

Curse of Eternal Beauty

0 5

Open: Bow one of your Sahir. Target a Hero in play. Draw and discard a card. Add the card's Fate value to the Hero's Influence. The Hero's controller draws and discards a card, adding the card's Fate value to the Hero's Ka. If the Hero's total Influence now exceeds his or her total Ka, destroy the Hero.

3

© Illus. © 1999 April Lee

Curse of Lost Youth

0 0

Night Curse: Target another Hero in play. Until the end of the game, the Hero's player must put a -1K token on the Hero each time the Hero straightens.

With every lost year, the remaining grow sharper, until a person can cut another down in old, bitter rage.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Randy Asplund-Paith

Curse of the Rot Within

0 0

Curse Day: Bow one of your Sahir. Bow a Hero.

“You should be careful what you eat,” the Ra'Shari whispered.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Kris Domans

Discorporation

0 5

Battle: Bow one of your Sahir. Target an opposing Hero. You and the Hero's controller each draw and discard a card. Add your card's Fate value to the Sahir's Ka. Your opponent adds his or her card's Fate value to the Hero's Ka. If the Sahir's total Ka exceeds the Hero's total Ka, destroy the Hero.

“Incompetent fool!” the Caliph screamed. “Die!”
And the Sultan's flesh dissolved.

3

© Illus. © 1999 Diana Vick

Dust to Dust

0 0

Spell

Buried Curse Day: Bow one of your Sahir. Target an opposing Hero. Put a -2K token on the Sahir and the Hero.

There is no injustice in the world. Lady Sun only gives us what we rightfully deserve.

1

© Illus. © 1999 Paul (Prof) Herbert

Forget

0 3

Buried Open: Eury the top three cards of a player's deck.

“Qer Apet.” The words flowed from the shadows like warm nectar. He could not move, frozen in place as the old woman continued. “We must leave, but you will remain to complete the story.” When he turned, she was gone, leaving an immense ruby behind.

2

© Illus. © 1999 Matthew Cavina

